announced that he awarded the contest to Fenton.

Connolly was the cleverer and Fenton the stronger. So rapidly did Connolly work in the first three rounds that he was regarded as an easy winner, but the gameness of Fenton and his surong rushes weakened Connolly, and Fenton would doubtless have been awarded the fight even had not Connolly struck the foul blows.

Before the fight there were two excellent bouts between Muldoon's Pickaninny and Andy Watson, of Philadelphia, and Sun Ashe, of Boston, and Jim Baker, of Providence.

The former was declared a draw, and in the eleventh round of the latter Baker knocked Sun Ashe out.

keep in anything like or Billy most work hard at all stages, and right there lies the difficulty. According to all the managers that Billy has eve pulling hen's teeth to get him to train, Manager Davis is a worker himself, and he wants everybody on his team to do likewise. In epeaking of the mat-ter to-day, Davis said to "The Evening World's" correspondent:

ter to-day, Davis said to "The Evening World's" correspondent:

"It is not a question of money, but there are two or three other conditions that Billy must agree to. He will not be signed until I get to New York and see him, and find out what his condition is. I know how much money he wants, and am willing to give it to him if he will agree to certain conditions. Schriver is one of the best catchers in the League, and would be a valuable mas for New York to have."

For the past two or three days the Giants have not been putting up the article of bail that the Polo Ground patrons would like to see, It is almost a certainty that the game in Charlottesville did them more harm than good. The day was miserable, and the following day a number of the boys complained of sore arms and colds.

After the coits had defeated the first team on Wednesday, Manager Davis was as mad as a wet hen, and he said a good many things in the presence of the other players, that were scarcely complimentary.

The boys will arrive in New York on Sunday afternoon, and there will be but few tears shed at getting out of the South and getting out of the South and getting over on their own the south few tears shed at getting out of the South and getting to work on their own South and getting to work on their own.

From "The Evening World's" Special Correspondent with the Team.)

PORTSMOUTH, Va., March 29.—According to Manager Davis there is no question of the amount of salary that stands between Billy Schriver and the Sew York Club. It is more a question of condition, and it lies entirely with Manager Davis as to whether the Chicago catcher will wear a Giant uniform this year.

Schriver, as a catcher, has few superiors. He is also a slashing batter, which cuts a considerable figure with the New York management. But, on the other hand, it is said that Billy would rather sit in a big arm chair, at his ease, than do any training towards putting himself in condition.

He is a strapping big fellow, and is inclined to take on flesh rapidly. To keep in anything like fit condition, Billy most work hard at all stages, and giantess at a museum on Sixth avenue.

MAY DISPOSSESS JACOBS.

Warrant Issued and a Stay Granted In Another Court. Judge McAdam, in the Superior Court R. Jacobs, the theatrical manager, to dropped in a letter-box this morning: It. Jacobs, the theatrical manager, to continue a temporary injunction restraining Thomas J. McCahill from securing a dispossess warrant for Jacobs Third Avenue Theatre.

Judge McAdam holds that Jacobs's remedy is by an action at law to recover for any damages which he may have sustained by the alleged breach of contract by his landford.

Thomas J. McCahill, the owner of the theatre building, began proceedings against Jacobs in the Sixth District Civil Court for non-payment of rent. The suit was decided in McCahill's favor and a dispossess warrant was about to issue when Jacobs obtained a temporary injunction.

Jacobs claimed that his rent was infraosed from $13,500 to $18,000 a year in May, 1883, on an agreement that the infraod would reconstruct the front of the theatre and make other improvements. He said the agreement had been violated by McCahill and for that reason he retused to a proper the rent.
